

Flattering

=====

My beautiful Love, you are my sunrises and sunsets. You are my world and have been since the first time I saw you from afar. My heart leapt in my chest and I had to catch my breath - the vision of you stole it from me. Hair lightly blowing in the breeze and the sun bouncing off your face making your eyes sparkle like stars in the midnight sky you captured my soul, my heart without speaking a word or even knowing. I felt love for the first time when I looked at you. My world became a beautiful place to live in. I often ask myself what in the world would I do without you? I hope to never find out the answer to that question.

My love, my beautiful love, come to me and make me the happiest man in the world! If you're asking me if I love you this much, my beautiful gal, I do! Marry me, Beautiful ... come spend eternity with me??