

I Love you

I love you. I love every little thing about you. I love your cute smile, your magical eyes, and the sound of your voice. I dream of your gentle touch, and I love the warmth I feel when I'm by your side. I can't stop thinking about you when we are apart. I need you by my side. You complete me. You mean the world to me. You are the best thing that has ever happened to me. You are the one I've always wished for. I never thought that I would ever meet someone as special as you. I love each and every moment I share with you.

I know every one wants to be the sun that lights up your life, but i had rather be your moon, so i can shine on you during your darkest hour when your sun isn't around.

No man can count the stars in the sky, no mathematician can count sands in the ground, no one born of woman can be able to count all my love for you sweetie.. i love you...

my happiest moment is when ever we are chatting, thanks for bringing joy and happiness in my life, you are making all my dreams come true..

Honey i am telling you the true words from my heart, what is a garden without flowers, what is the moon without the stars, what is me without you, you are the key to my heart and my life.. i love you am not lying honey please believe every words that i tell you.

you are the real gift from God, you are the answer to my prayers,with you in ma life, ma long search for a perfect one and true love has ended...

colours may fade, the sun may not shine, the moon may not be bright, heart beats may stop, lives may past.. but my feelings for you, i will treasure it until the day my heart stops..

Honey if i wrote your name in the sky, the sun will wash it away, if i wrote your name in the sand, the rain will wash it away... your name is written and stored in my heart where nothing can touch it, accept God.

I try to put this feeling into words, but fail miserably. This feeling of being both scared and at peace, of having both butterflies and a sense of calm, is a feeling that I have only dreamed about. As the days continue to pass, my love for you continues to grow. I never thought I had the capacity to love anybody as much as I love you right now. Yet, my love for you continues to mature, growing beyond the realm of my heart. It seems that you have become the fiber of my soul, the very reason for my existence. I have no other words to describe the way you make me feel. No words, no actions could even come close.

Every minute I spend with you, is like being in heaven and looking in an angel's eyes..I'd rather die tomorrow than live a hundred years without knowing you.. How can you tell the sun not to shine, when clouds exist. How can ask leaves not to fall when wind exists. How can you tell me not to fall in love when you exist. By my eyes i will met you..By my soft hands i wil touched you..By my lips i wil kiss you.. By my heart i wil loved you.
