

MEET SCAM CONFIRMATION FMT

Today, my day started at 10 Am, I had a meeting with some delegates from Africa Union, European Union, and UN to discuss the current situation in Sudan. There is a war of power going on between Sudan's military and the country's main paramilitary force which has killed hundreds of both Sudanese and foreigners. As a diplomatic expert in conflict resolution, I have been appointed to head the delegation meeting.

Jena, hope I don't bore you with work stuff, but honestly, I feel comfortable talking about myself because it's been a long I had a friend to talk to, so do not blame me for going too forward with my discussions. Besides that, I also love discussing politics as one of my hobbies, but when am not discussing politics, I also enjoy taking a long walk; going to the beach, swimming, fishing, playing pool, and sports, and I like anything that has to do with the enjoyment of water or listening to the waves of the beach alongside with cool music. Tell me, Jena, what do enjoy doing when you are not busy?

^^

I tried having conversations with some women on that dating platform before i came across your profile, but unfortunately for me, they all turned out to be profile grabbers and scammers who just wanted my money. Funny, I almost fell for one in particular, You wouldn't blame me, I just wanted someone whom I could talk to, or share my heart with, I just wanted Love. Well, that's that. So did you enter into any relationship conversation with anyone? what happened, it didn't work?

Meeting you, i never expected that we would get along easily, but suddenly your unique personality made you an inseparable part of my life. I value you and our friendship beyond what I can describe.
